

Afternoon Tea Wedding Package

Afternoon Tea is a quintessential British tradition and here at Forever Green we are offering this elegant package for those who want something a little less formal for their wedding day.

Your wedding ceremony with up to 50 guests will be held in our main room in front of the floor to ceiling windows giving you a fabulous view of the surrounding woodland.

The room will be set with white chair covers and sashes of your choice.

A reception drink will then be ready for you and your guests to enjoy as you take time to have photos in the grounds.

Your afternoon tea will then be served upstairs on tables clothed with linen and served on our contemporary wood and slate cake stands. White chair covers and your choice of sashes will add an elegant look to the room.

A Prosecco toast to accompany your speeches will make this a truly tradition wedding breakfast with a modern twist.

The evening reception with up to 100 guests will then take place downstairs where our chef will prepare, carve and serve a mouth-watering hog-roast and you can celebrate until midnight with a disco.

Total package cost for 50 day guests and 100 evening guests
